Jubilee poised to ship out

BY ED LEPOMA

Activity aboard the Jubilee Casino, and casino employees indicate the gambling vessel may shut down at midnight Sunday.

Jubilee's general manager John Kingsbury would not confirm the impending closure since Friday usually starts off the weekend when crowds come from adjoining parishes in Louisiana to try their luck at the slots and gaming tables.

"A decision (on closing) hasn't been made," Kingsbury told the Echo. "As soon as it's official, and the information is available it will be released."

Kingsbury said the Jubilee would be required to notify the state Gaming Commission when they planned to close. "There is an established procedure," he said.

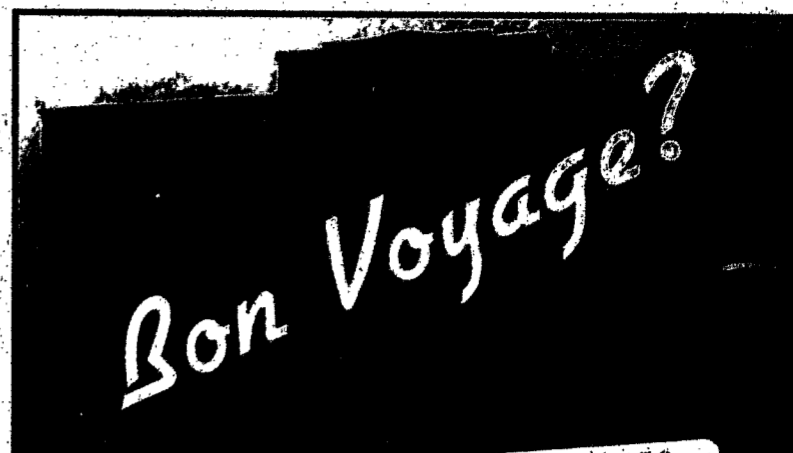

There was an air of anxiety aboard the Jubilee Friday afternoon when an Echo reporter went aboard.

Visitors were greeted by one sign saying, "All special promotions have been discontinued until further notice." The crudely printed signs on white poster paper with black lettering were displayed in areas throughout the vessel.

A maintenance employee was on a ladder in the entrance lobby taking down the giant stuffed cartoon characters that the Jubilee had been giving away in one of its special promotions. The plush toys were hanging down the wall from the second floor balcony.

County takes first step to provide sewage system

BY ED LEPOMA

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors has taken the first step needed to launch a $10 million project that will provide a sewage system for residents of Pearlington, Lakeshore Drive and Clermont Harbor.

At its regular monthly meeting Thursday, supervisors acted on a request by Hancock County Wastewater District 1 officials to begin the legal steps necessary so they can expand their jurisdiction to include all areas south of I-10.

Supervisors voted to publish its intent to annex those areas, and will later advertise a date for a public hearing on the proposal, as required by law.

Annexation would make up to $10 million in grants and loans available, mostly through the Farmers Home Administration.

The project would add approximately 1,500 homes to the district's sewage system. About 850 residents of Pearlington and Belle Isle subdivision would be included, and connections of sewer lines would be completed in the Shoreline Park area.

Some of the homes and trailers in the area to be annexed are now dumping sewage into septic tanks, but some sewage is running untreated into ditches, canals and bayous.

For years, the area has been under federal and state mandates to correct the potentially health-endangering situation.

Under the program to be administered by the Wastewater District, each residence would be provided with a grinder pump and tank that will send the raw sewage to a new treatment facility that would be constructed.

Homeowners would have to have their existing septic tanks filled in, and bear the cost of running the line from their homes to the district's pumping system at the street.

In past public hearings, citizens have been told, if federal funds are received, they will be required to tie-in to the system, and the monthly charge for service would be about $35.

District 1 Supervisor Robert Peterson wondered out loud if the $35 monthly service charge might eventually be lowered.

"Is this going to be the charge infinitum?" he asked.

J.P. Compretta, representing the district, said chances are the charge would never be reduced.

The Board tabled a request by the county's Solid Waste District to allow it to become a "Solid Waste Authority."

District 3 Supervisor Howard Lizana said he wanted to take the matter under advisement, although the cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland have already approved the District's request.

A coin toss decides election

Emotions ran high as a coin toss decided who was the runnerup in the District 4 Supervisor race following a hearing Wednesday at the Hancock County Courthouse. Watching the coin (above) were (L-R): county Circuit Clerk Pam Metzler; Election Commissioner Jean Dorsey who tossed the coin; candidate Harry Farve, who lost the toss; candidate Tom Williams; his wife Deborah; and candidate Steve Seymour. Williams, who will be in a special election with Seymour on Oct. 31 to determine the Democratic candidate, was all smiles as he gave attorney Malcolm Jones a victory hoist (left). Boudin to pick up additional refuse

BY MARY G. SEILEY

Major items of refuse—furniture, appliances and other bulky junk—won't be so hard to dispose of locally after Nov. 1.

Bay St. Louis City Council was told Tuesday that regularly scheduled garbage pickups by Boudin's Waste and Recycling will begin including collection of the additional items next month.

The additional service comes at no extra cost to the city, council was told.

Homeowners will be limited to one bulky item per pickup, such as a sofa, or an old refrigerator. Refrigerators and air conditioners must be certified and tagged as freon-free before the pickup.

The information struck City Council as terrific news. Council members frequently complain over piles of furniture and appliances that residents place curbside, or in the street, because they don't know how to dispose of it.

Officials urge that bulky junk not be placed for pickup before Nov. 1.

Seawall reinforcement about to begin in Bay

BY MARY G. SEILEY

Work to stabilize two more stretches of local shoreline is about to begin.

Contractors are scheduled to reinforce 700 feet of seawall with concrete and sheetpile at the northern end of Beach Boulevard, 2.5 miles north of Highway 90.

And other contractors are going to work on a stretch of waterfront running from Bay View Court to the southern edge of Casino Magic's tract at the bridge.

John Grandison, managing the projects for the Corps of Engineers, said Thursday Summerall Construction Co. from Gulfport has a $314,500 contract for the seawall project at the end of North Beach Boulevard.

That project should start within days, he said.

Meanwhile, Arrow Construction Co. of Montgomery, Ala., has the $345,200 contract for the Bay View Court project, Grandison said. Work there involves building a structure off shore and backfilling to recreate shoreline that has eroded in recent years.

There is no existing seawall along that stretch of Beach Boulevard.

Grandison said the Bay View project should be under construction by the end of October.

Bay men arrested

BY ED LEPOMA

Two Bay St. Louis men have been arrested and charged with the sale of a controlled substance, according to Det. Terry Eley.

Eley said Jack Welch, 49, was arrested at his residence Thursday at 6136 W. Forest, along with Jon Laver, 29, whose local address is 4091 Atlantic Street. Bond for both was set at $5,000.

Eley is with the Bay St. Louis Police Department, and is assigned to the Hancock County Sheriff's special Narcotics Task Force. He was assisted in the arrest by Sheriff's deputies Bruce Propus, George Burleson and Matt Karl.

"CUEVAS' QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

There are numerous drives for deserving organizations going on within our community at this time. They are important to the organizations, and many need participation by the public.

One I would like to mention is the Clement R. Bon Temps American Legion Junior Auxiliary Unit 139 sponsorship of a Fall Costume Party on Friday, Oct. 27, 6 to 10 p.m.

The party is to be held at the American Legion home, Green Meadow Road, Bay St. Louis.

Proceeds from the Fall Costume Party will go to the Mississippi Memorial Burn Center in Greenville.

The Junior Auxiliary members are selling tickets at $1 each for entry, and food will be available at $1 plate, according to Debbie Downey, Junior Auxiliary activity chairman.

There will be adult supervision at the Fall Costume Party too, Downey said.

It is a costume party, not necessarily a Halloween party, Downey added.

Those interested in renting a costume (all ages) for a nominal donation, may contact Downey at 467-7807.

There will be fun, surprises, music, guest speakers, games, prizes, door prizes and refreshments.

Firefighters will assist the Junior Auxiliary with the costume party.

Sounds like it will be lots of fun, and I am hoping there will be a large turnout, because the Mississippi Burn Center is very important to our state.

Our community also needs to support as many of the deserving fund raisers as possible.

There was a good attendance Friday morning at the open house and ribbon cutting for the Waveland Library Center, Coleman Avenue.

New carpeting has been installed, equipment, some fresh painting, and many other needed renovations were made at the library.

The facility looks very neat, clean and ready for use. Our library system is for all of our residents.

It is possible that it has been too long since you have visited one of our library locations.

You may want to just drop in at the library in Bay St. Louis, Waveland, or Kiln, as you may be surprised at all that is offered to our community.

The Waveland Library is also the facility where our library system's literacy classes are held on Monday and Thursday evenings from 6 to 8 p.m.

This is a very important service to our county, and I am hoping those who are in need will visit the Waveland Library to find more particulars.

I have noticed several Halloween decorations in the area, and I am sure there will be more.

Halloween is always a time when our youngsters, (also those young at heart) have a good time.

Many of the "little ones" cannot wait until Halloween to go about the area trick-or-treating.

Guess what, you only have nine more days to do so. I hope to see you out Halloween night.

Holiday Spirit.
Thank you for giving.

EYES ON MISSISSIPPI

By Bill Minor

Representative Montgomery has been good friend of military

When Sonny Montgomery leaves the U.S. House next year, veterans who served in the nation's armed services will lose their greatest friend in Congress. Who will pick up the mantle? Possibly there is no one.

Sonny was one of the dwindling number of World War II veterans in Congress and none of his colleagues took the pains that Montgomery always did in looking after the interests of those who had served their country in the military.

The hue and cry for term limits these days rings hollow indeed when you look at what a long, useful career Sonny built on behalf of many thousands of America's former service people who deserve a patron. Without his seniority he certainly would never have had the clout and respect that he had.

It's truly poetic that the Montgomery G.I. Bill bears his name. Already two million young veterans have been able to use its educational benefits, and the incentives it provides will virtually guarantee this nation can maintain a voluntary standing army hereafter.

Its forerunner, the post-World War II G.I. Bill has been hailed as one of the most remarkably successful government programs ever instituted, being responsible for helping 16 million WWII veterans get an education or raise their educational level beyond what they could have ever expected. The G.I. Bill is often credited as the most important single force in building America's great middle class society in the '40s and '50s.

Of course, the state of Mississippi has substantially benefited from an economic standpoint by Montgomery's service in Congress. Witness the sprawling Veterans Administration complex in Jackson and the saving of the Meridian Naval Air Station from closure the past several years.

Not many realize that the VA facilities in Jackson represent almost a half-billion dollar investment, and with the recent expansion making it a "one-stop" facility, it is one of the major regional VA facilities to serve thousands of veterans from insurance to medical needs. Unquestionably Sonny was responsible for Jackson having it.

To stay in Congress so long as a Democrat from Mississippi's east-central Third District took a very delicate balancing act. Sonny did it with such aplomb and grace that he never alienated any of the conflicting interests he represented.

To call the third a conservative district is hardly adequate. It was the area where the Klan once flourished, and where the horrible murders of three civil rights workers in 1964 took place. It is where the state's prototypical "redneck" image abounds.

Until the 1992 redistricting, the third had a fairly good-sized minority population, but the district was made whiter as more of its blacks were put over into the Second District. That, of course, weakened the Democratic strength and made the district more attractive to the Republicans. Sonny ran scared in 1994 when he drew a supposedly strong GOP challenge from Dutch Dabbs, but he still managed to win with 68 percent of the vote. Whether or not any other Democrat without Montgomery's tools could do nearly as well appears very doubtful.

Montgomery began his yearly visits with U.S. personnel in South Vietnam in 1967, and in all, made 16 trips to Southeast Asia. For several years he was the only member of Congress who would go there. I personally won't forget when he looked up our oldest son in Vietnam in 1969 and brought back a personal report.

Nor will I forget that Sonny came down to speak to the 1987 reunion of my World War II ship's crew in New Orleans, insisting on paying his plane fare from and to Washington out of his own pocket, and not at government expense. You couldn't find many of the prima donnas now in Congress who would do that.

In a telephone visit the other day, Sonny characterized his congressional voting record as that of a moderate-conservative. "Basically," he said, "I voted the way my district wanted me to, but I also voted for what I thought was for the good of the nation." Sometimes those two had to be in conflict.

Proudly, he said, "I started out a Democrat and I stayed a Democrat."

In stepping down after 30 years, now at age 74, but still trim and physically fit, Sonny is doing something old politicians rarely do: go out under his own power, still at the top of the game with his head held high.

Sonny will be missed by a lot of people, and most of all by the veterans.

It could be a best seller. But it's free.

FROM THE SENATE

By Senator Trent Lott

A strong merchant marine

Maritime reform is vital to our national and economic security. From the beginning, America has been a maritime nation reliant on secure ocean passage and transport for commerce and military strength.

From the sea battles of the American Revolution through the Persian Gulf, our seafarers and merchant marine courageously supplied and sustained our troops in combat and conflict. The U.S. flag fleet and merchant marine carried troops and cargo through World War I and II, Korea, Vietnam and the Persian Gulf.

In WWII, more than 6,000 merchant mariners were killed, and thousands more were wounded. Afterward, the Supreme Allied Commander General Dwight D. Eisenhower noted: "The officers and men of the merchant marine, by their devotion to duty in the face of enemy action, as well as the material dangers of the sea, have brought to us the tools to finish the job. Their contribution to final victory will long be remembered."

Following the Persian Gulf War, General Colin Powell said: "Since I became chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, I have come to appreciate firsthand why our merchant marine has long been called the nation's fourth arm of defense. The American seafarer provides an essential service to the well-being of the nation, as was demonstrated so clearly during Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm."

Over the last 20 years, Congress has failed to pass an effective maritime policy. The result is a dangerous decline of the U.S. flag fleet, merchant marine and shipbuilding. We face a situation where if we fail to act in this Congress, our national security and international competitiveness will be seriously and irreversibly harmed.

We could easily lose our U.S. flag fleet and with it our merchant marine. If that occurs, our military readiness and our sealift capacity will be dealt a blow. Many jobs would be lost related to the maritime industry, and our balance of payments and international competitiveness would suffer.

In times of international crisis or war, our historical and successful reliance on the U.S. flag fleet and merchant marine would come to an end. I do not want to be a part of that, and Administration officials have indicated to me that they, too, support a reordering of priorities to fund maritime security. During the last week of September, I offered an amendment to maintain and promote a U.S. flag fleet built in U.S. shipyards and manned by U.S. crews in the most cost-effective and flexible manner possible.

When I visit Mississippi's ports, I want to see the greatest amount possible of Mississippi agricultural products — rice, cotton, soybeans, catfish, chicken, forest products — and other exports moving on U.S. flagged ships built in America.

The funding in this amendment passed by the Senate will help achieve these objectives in maritime reform by establishing a new maritime security program. It is offset by a reduction in spending in the International Broadcasting Account. This procedure will permit us to strengthen our merchant marine without increasing spending. In fact, my amendment terminates the previous maritime security program, reducing costs by 50 percent.

In its place, a more efficient and flexible program will continue the successful private/commercial partnership with the Departments of Transportation and Defense. To promote the nation's shipbuilding infrastructure and capacity, my amendment funds and reforms the Title XI Loan Guarantee Program to stimulate U.S. shipbuilding, competitiveness and jobs.

Maritime reform is vital to our national and economic security, and this amendment is a strong first step by this Congress to reverse the decline in our U.S. flag fleet, merchant marine and shipbuilding industry.

Taylor supports fairness for American fishermen

South Mississippi Congressman Gene Taylor, along with the majority of the Gulf Coast Congressional delegation from Alabama to Texas, voted against legislation which contained provisions that would place undo hardships on American fishermen and shrimpers.

Taylor said he supported the overall intent of the H.R. 39, the "Fisheries Conservation and Management Act," which passed the House yesterday, but said he could not support the final version, as it placed tough restrictions on South Mississippi fishermen.

He said the legislation would have put America's fishermen at a disadvantage to fishermen overseas.

"What this amendment would have done is place yet one more mandate on the American fishermen, who have seen the percentage of the shrimp sales in this country shrink from about 90 percent just 15 years ago down to 10 percent right now," Taylor said.

"Is it really fair to make our nation's fishermen do one more thing that you will not ask our foreign competitors to do? No, it's not fair," Taylor said.

Bay High coasts in 51-14 victory

BY RICHARD MEEK

For an ailing team, Pass Christian has provided the perfect remedy.

Friday night was no exception, as Bay High snapped a two-game losing streak with a 51-14 thumping of the 0-9 Pirates before a sparse crowd in Pass Christian in a non-district contest.

"This win is going to help us a lot," said the Tigers' Reggie Williams, who scored two touchdowns.

"It proves that we can play with anybody when we put our minds to it," he said.

Bay High, 3-5, unleashed a season full of frustration on the hapless Pirates. The Tigers rolled up 351 yards in total offense, led by Wali Shabazz with 131 on 15 carries and two touchdowns.

Defensively, the Tigers held Pass Christian to minus 11 yards in the first half, and four total yards until late in the third quarter when Bay High coach Walt Esslinger inserted his junior varsity defense.

In the first quarter, only three of Pass Christian's nine offensive plays went for positive yards.

"I thought we would be good enough to shut them down," said Tiger defensive line coach Joey Brockhoff. "I was disappointed in the first half. We did not play as well as we could."

"In the second half, we played with a lot more fire."

Bay High's defense made an early statement by pushing the Pirates back 13 yards on their first possession, including Richard Benton's 10-yard sack of Pass quarterback Raynoid Dedaux on third down.

Dedaux had returned the opening kickoff 55 yards to the Pass 42.

The Tiger offense wasted little time warming up on a chilly night. Bay High drove 69 yards in only plays, the payoff coming on Jonathan Favre's 17-yard pass to Williams with 6:17 left in the first quarter.

"I had no doubt I could get free," Williams said. "And (Favre) threw a pretty pass." Dedaux returned the ensuing kickoff 68 yards to the Tiger 30. Bay High was nipped for 123 yards on the Pirates' first two returns.

"We were just going through the motions," Williams said.

Dedaux's one-yard run following a Bay High penalty cut the Tiger lead to 7-6 with 4:13 remaining in the first quarter. However, Dedaux's pass on a two-point conversion attempt went through the hands of a Pirate receiver.

The Tigers increased the lead to 14-6 early in the second quarter with a 55-yard, six play drive, culminated by James Benton's 19-yard run at the 8:41 mark.

The lead grew on Favre's 50-yard pass to James Benton, who showed several nifty moves after the reception. Shabazz's third straight PAT gave the Tigers a 21-6 lead with 20 seconds left in the first half.

Dedaux fumbled the ensuing kickoff and the Tigers recovered at the Pirate 30 with six seconds left, time enough for

Hancock Hawks quench Tide, 7-3

Hancock running back Darrell William looks for running room against Picayune Friday night in Picayune. The Hawks prevailed, 7-3. (Photo by Tracey Bonner)

BY TRACI BONNEY
The homestanding Picayune Maroon Tide gave the Hancock Hawks a battle Friday, but the Hawks prevailed with a fourth quarter touchdown and a 7-3 win.

Hancock head coach Rocky Gaudin said, "It was a good win. Hancock deserved to win this one."

"We came out here and overcame a lot to win this game. We've never won against Picayune, and we've had to come here to play them two years in a row. The kids played their hearts out. They were shaky early on, but after a while we started sticking it to Picayune."

The two teams were evenly matched on the ground and in the air for yardage. Hancock tallied eight first downs to Picayune's 11; the Hawks netted 107 yards rushing and 41 yards passing to the Tide's 105 rushing and 42 passing.

The Hawks completed two of nine pass attempts; two were intercepted. The Maroon Tide completed only four of 19 attempts, with no interceptions.

It looked like the Hawks were going to rack up a score early in the first quarter when quarterback Chad Peterson kept from the two-yard line on a fourth-and-goal, but he was forced out at the one to give the Tide possession.

That drive set the tone for the match. Neither team scored in the first quarter; the Tide settled for a 43-yard field goal, kicked by Shawn Grigsby, in the second.

The third quarter went without any additions to the scoreboard; then Hancock's Peterson crossed the goal line halfway through the final period for a TD. Chris Green added the PAT kick.

The win puts the Hawks at 5-4 for the season. They remain 2-2 in district play. Picayune is 4-4, 2-2.

Hancock hosts Bay High Friday for homecoming. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

Tigers

Shabazz to kick a 47-yard field goal and give Bay High a 24-6 halftime lead.

The Tigers had 99 yards rushing in the first half, but ran only three running plays in their last two possessions.

"I got a little impatient," Esslinger admitted. "That was just poor coaching on my part."

Bay High scored 27 points in a nine-minute span of the third quarter to take a 51-6 lead. The Tigers needed only three plays to go 56 yards on their first possession of the second half. Shabazz scored from eight yards out and added the PAT to give Bay High a 31-6 lead.

T.J. Hawkins forced a Dedaux fumble on the ensuing kickoff and Williams scooped it up and ran in from eight yards out to give the Tigers a 37-6 lead with barely a minute expired in the third quarter.

"The coaches really got on (the kicking team) at halftime," Williams said. "They told us they would give us a chance to redeem ourselves. (Hawkins) knocked it away and I was there to pick it up."

A third Pirate fumble four plays later gave Bay High possession; at the Pass Christian 28. Five plays later, Richard Benton scored on a two-yard run to give the Tigers a 44-6 lead with 6:29 still remaining in the third quarter.

The Tigers' final score came on Shabazz's 37-yard punt return that gave Bay High a 51-6 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. Besides scoring two touchdowns, Shabazz converted six of seven PATs, and added the field goal. He also made a touchdown-saving tackle of Dedaux on the opening kickoff.

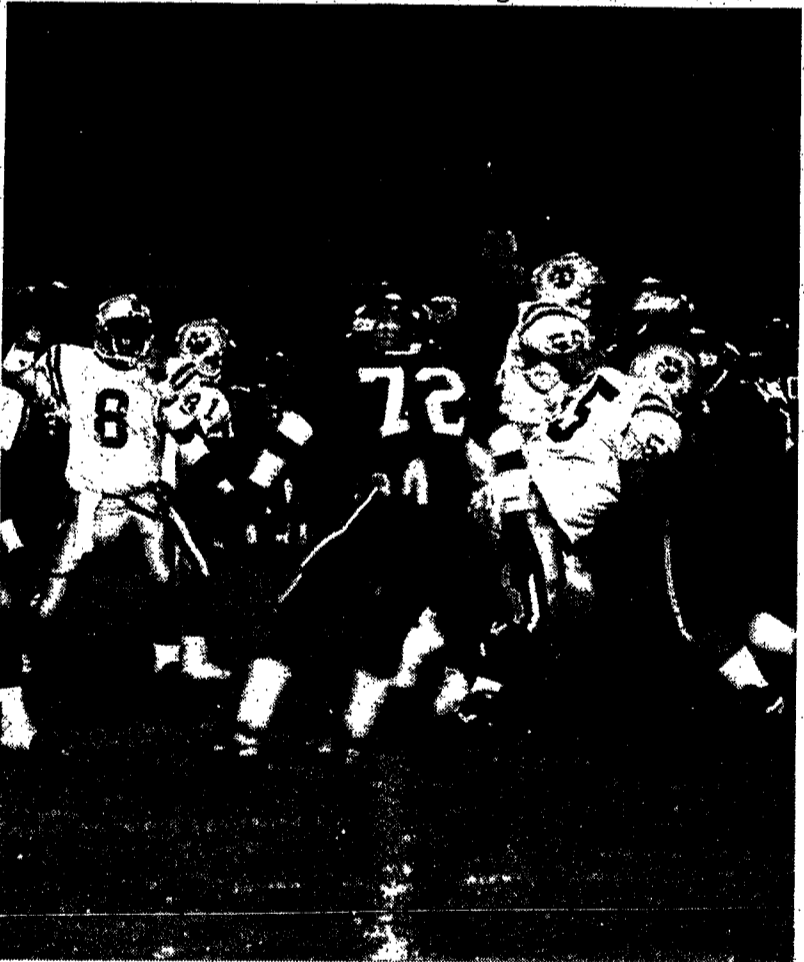

"What didn't (Shabazz) do," Esslinger said.

"This was a good win for us because our starters had success and our JV got to play," he added.

Against the Tiger junior varsity, Pass Christian drove 80 yards in 11 plays, with Darrell Biggs scoring on a 13-yard run. Biggs finished with 98 yards on 15 carries, but 69 yards came against the Bay High subs.

The Tigers play at Hancock High Friday, a game Williams said his teammates want "worst of all."

Pass closes out its season Friday at home against Purvis.

Bay High quarterback Jonathan Favre completed three of nine passes for 79 yards and two touchdowns in the Tigers' 51-14 victory over Pass Christian. (Echo staff photo by Richard Meek)

SSC trampled by Petal, 62-8

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II

It took only a flip of the coin to see where the Petal Panthers would dominate first.

In a game that saw the Rocks fumble six times, Petal scored quickly and often to crush the Rocks 62-8 in Petal.

The Rocks eventually scored early in the fourth quarter to avoid the shutout in the District 7-4A matchup. The SSC junior varsity from the 10:57 mark of the third quarter.

After Petal won the toss, the Panthers went 74 yards on a reverse by Tottie Myers for their first score of the evening at the 10:45 mark of the first quarter. The two-point conversion was good making the score 8-0.

The Rocks began to move on their first possession but had the fumbled on the third play of the drive. Three plays later, Shane Tapper connected with Patrick McCrory for a five-yard score at the 8:41 mark of the first quarter. The two point conversion was good and the score was 16-0.

The Rocks proved they could move against Petal when David Bell rambled 12 yards for a first down. Bell started at wingback for the Rocks for the first time this year. Corey Charles followed with a 13-yard run that tallied another Rock first down. Bell picked up another first down with a seven-yard gain before the second Rock turnover killed the drive.

The Panthers threw three straight incomplete passes and were forced to punt for the only time of the night.

However, SSC was unable to move against the Panther defense and lined up to punt a bad snap gave Petal possession at the Rock 15.

Jerid Henslerling ran to the six before being pushed out of bounds by Derek Bradley. Gary Reed slashed his way into the end zone one play later at the 10:49 mark of the second quarter. The two-point conversion was good, making the score 24-0.

The Rocks had a small drive when Bell had runs of eight and seven yards for Rock first downs but turned the ball over on downs at midfield.

Tapper connected with Myers for a gain of 35 yards and a Petal first down after two straight incompletions. Two plays later, Myers scored from 11 yards out at the 5:31 mark. The PAT attempt by John Marsh was blocked by Bell and Jeremy Penton, making the score 30-0.

After two incompletions, SSC quarterback Corey Gex connected with Bell for a gain of 13 yards but it wasn't enough for the first down due to a Rock penalty on the previous play. SSC turned the ball over on downs. Tapper connected with Michael Shelby for an apparent first down when Gex laid a perfect hit that jarred the ball loose and into the hands of Tyree Haynes.

Gex connected with Bell for a gain of 18 yards and a Rock first down but penalties stalled the drive.

The Rocks put the Panthers in a third and long situation but Tapper connected with McCrory for a 40-yard gain to midfield. The next play saw Tapper hit Myers for a scoring pass with 17 seconds to go in the half. The PAT by Marsh was good, making the score 37-0.

The Rocks went to the air in the second half. Gex was intercepted by Mark Curtis, who rambled 22 yards for a touchdown at the 11:33 mark of the third quarter. The PAT by Marsh was no good and the score remained 43-0.

The junior varsity offense came in and played the rest of the game for SSC. On the third play of the drive, the junior Rocks fumbled to the Panthers.

Michael Shelby scored on the second play of the drive from 12 yards out at 8:42 of the third quarter. The two point conversion was no good, leaving the score at 49-0.

The Rocks fumbled back to the Panthers on the first play. Kevin Sanford brought the ball down to the Rock one-yard line with a 19-yard run. On the next play, Jeff Morgan plunged in from one-yard out at the 6:36 mark of the third quarter. The PAT by Craig Bullock failed and the score was 55-0.

The Rocks could not hold on to the ball and SSC fumbled back to the Panthers. However, SSC got the ball back when freshman David Byrne practically took the handoff in the handoff.

Tyree Haynes took control of the offense as he cranked out runs of 10 and 22 yards for Rock first downs. Two plays later, Haynes broke free for a 42-yard scoring run to put the Rocks on the board at the 11:04 mark of the fourth quarter. Andy Brown scored on the two-point conversion to make the score 55-8.

Kevir Sanford had a gain of 28 yards and a Petal first down before the Panthers turned the ball over to SSC on a fumble.

The Rocks could muster nothing and punted away to the Panthers. Fabian Moody scored Petal's final touchdown of the game on a 57-yard run with 4:57 remaining in the game. The PAT by Bullock was good, making the final score 62-8.

Rock coach Mario Genna refused comment after witnessing his team's performance.

Haynes led the Rocks with 104 yards and their only score. Gex was two for six for 33 yards and one interception. Bell led the team with 11 tackles on defense.

The Rocks dropped to 3-6 on the season and winless in the division. Petal improves to 6-2, 4-0 in the district.

Cattle producers fund ad brochure

Hancock County cattle producers know that providing consumers with convenient, delicious recipes ensures beef's popularity on the American menu. Responding to numerous consumer requests, beef producers have helped fund a colorful new brochure featuring recipes from the popular "Beef, It's What's for Dinner" advertising campaign.

The brochure, Beef, It's What's for Dinner: Easy Beef Recipes in 30 Minutes or Less, is packed with 11 beef recipes and color photos of beef meals that can be prepared in 30 minutes or less. The actual preparation and cooking time is included for each recipe.

The brochure features hearty, more traditional meals like Easy Beef Stroganoff, Beefy Chili Mac, Muffin Tin Meat-loaves, and Crescent-Topped Beef Pot Pie as well as more contemporary dinners like Steak Caesar Salad, Honey-Dijon Beef Stir-Fry, Savory Steak and Pasta and Lemon-Herbed Steak.

Other recipes include Fiesta Beef Steaks and Sloppy Joe Piz-za. All of the recipes have fewer than 10 ingredients and are designed for the convenience-oriented consumer.

Taxes:

Plan ahead, but there's time to act before Dec. 31

Proper planning for taxes is a year-round activity, but especially important as the end of the year approaches.

According to Mississippi State University tax expert Zoel Daughtrey, "Planning should be a year-round function because it simplifies the process."

It's especially important to plan will during the fall and winter, he adds. "You'll find it's much easier to prepare good records before the end of the year, rather than trying to go back and recreate or request information in the spring."

Good record keeping is the key to hassle-free tax filing. "In preparing taxes, be aware that a primary Internal Revenue Service requirement is good documentation. Keeping good records is essential in providing the documentation that will be entered into tax returns."

"For example, an area where documentation on the spot is necessary is in selling stock," he said. "Make a record of stock cost, date of purchase, date sold, and cost of sale. This information is important in determining taxable gain."

Daughtrey says continual planning allows time for adjustments to changes in tax filing.

"For those people who employ child care workers or household help, there will be some changes in tax reporting," said Daughtrey. "Employees will report payroll taxes due on their individual 1040 forms rather than on separate payroll returns."

According to Daughtrey, there is still time before year's end to make tax filing easier, especially with the holiday season fast approaching. He offers some suggestions that may help:

• For charitable contributions, give stocks instead of cash. Because the stock market is up this year, some taxpayers have securities that have increased in value. If you're thinking about making charitable contributions, you might think about giving securities instead of cash. You will still get a deduction for the full value of the stock, but you won't have to pay taxes on the gain.

• Keep track of volunteer activities. If you do volunteer work, out-of-pocket expenses such as travel may be deductible. It's important to record expenses and obtain receipts.

• Donate items to local charities. If you make non-cash donations, such as clothing and household items, to charitable organizations, you will be eligible for a deduction equal to the fair market value of the item. Such a donation will benefit not only you, but also the individual who receives it.

• Apply for a Social Security number for new dependents. The requirement to list the Social Security number applies in 1995 to any dependent born prior to Nov. 1, 1995. If you need a number for a new dependent, file Form SS-5, application for a Social Security card. Many hospitals keep a supply of the forms for new parents.

• Make contributions now to retirement accounts such as IRA, SEP or Keogh. You'll be able to defer taxes on these earnings sooner.

• Review your year-to-date tax payments. This is a good time to check the amount of your income tax withholding and any estimated tax payment to determine if either should be modified before year's end. This is especially true if your marital status or dependents have changed.

Financial Focus

Load vs. no-load mutual funds

In choosing mutual funds, should you buy one with an up-front sales charge? Talk about a "loaded" question.

A "load" mutual fund charges a sales fee, or load, when you buy it. A portion of the fee goes to the broker/dealer, whose responsibility it is to explain the fund, see that it meets your objectives and continue serving your needs.

"No-load" funds charge no sales fee up front, which entices many people. These funds can be bought directly from the fund company, without any assistance whatsoever.

A recent edition of Personal Finance, a widely read subscription newsletter, rated the performance of the 10 biggest stock mutual funds ("biggest" being those that manage more shareholder dollars than any others). Collectively, the 10 funds manage about $139.5 billion worth of investors' money. Of these 10, six charge loads, three have no front-end load, and one is closed to new investors.

The newsletter used a four-star rating system to evaluate these funds. Each fund could earn a star for the following: (1) outperforming the Standard & Poor's (S&P) 500 Index in bull market conditions and (2) in bear market conditions; (3) being diversified and offering a degree of predictability as to market risk; and (4) being less volatile than the S&P 500.

Only two of the 10 funds, both of which charge a sales load, earned four-star ratings. Four funds earned three-star ratings; three of these also charge loads.

Another study, this one by Dalbar Financial Services of Boston, showed that investors in load funds fared better than their no-load counterparts. The study examined the returns on equity funds for the period from January 1984 through November 1994.

Load funds averaged a return of 66.07 percent, and no-load funds returned 51.16 percent. The reason for this, the study determined, was the professional service that comes with load funds: investment representatives who helped clients select funds also helped them stay invested during difficult times.

As the studies show, buying professional advice with your mutual fund can pay off in the long run. Do-it-yourselfers often have a hard time staying invested when fund prices drop and usually get out after most of the decline is over. Then, if they ever return, it's typically at a higher price than when they sold.

Professional help, however, can guide you through all conditions so you get a better return over the long haul.

Don't be scared off by up-front sales fees. The professional advice you get with them can really take a "load" off your mind.

Jubilee

At the entrance was another more attractive poster, showing the interior of the Cotton Club, the gambling ship casino officials say is supposed to move to Jubilee's berth in Bayou Caddy.

Imposed over that poster was lettering saying, "We're not going... We're growing."

Employees would not comment on the record but spoke freely to an Echo reporter posing as a gambler. Supervisory employees would not comment.

A security guard was the first to confirm the midnight Sunday closure.

"As far as I know, that's when we'll be closing," he said.

A cocktail waitress was the next: "Yes, we're closing down midnight Sunday, but they say we'll be back up and running in three weeks," she said.

County Tax Assessor Eddie

Murtagh said he wasn't surprised that the Jubilee was making plans to close.

"There's nothing devious or underhanded about it. They've got to be ready to go, but I don't think the State Gaming Commission will let them leave until they honor their agreement with this county," Murtagh said.

That complicated agreement, which took at least two weeks to negotiate, was finalized just last Monday, and agreed to by the Board of Supervisors, Murtagh, Alpha Gulf Coast Inc. officials here and in New York, and the Cure family, which leases Alpha the barge site. The site includes the parking lot and all improvements.

Alpha, which operates the Jubilee, gave the county a check Monday for $60,000 as a first installment of the $303,150 it owes in 1994 property taxes and unpaid interest accruing since last February.

Once Alpha pays the overdue taxes, the state will release its lien on the land, which it obtained at the county's public auction last August.

Alpha also owes $212,062 in property taxes assessed on its operation in 1995, but has until Feb. of 1996 to pay that bill.

Under terms of the agreement, Alpha cannot move the Jubilee barge out of local waters until it posts a surety bond guaranteeing payment of the overdue 1994 property taxes, according to Murtagh.

According to the agreement, Alpha will have to find a reputable firm qualified in Mississippi to underwrite a bond totaling $445,300, Murtagh said.

"We've already got a lein on the land," he explained. "The bond would cover the value of the vessel, the slot machines and everything else aboard it."

As of late Friday, Murtagh said Alpha had not posted a surety bond.

Warren Strain, Public Relations Director for the Gaming Commission, called Jubilee's local management late Friday on the Echo's behalf to ask about the midnight Sunday closure.

He said, "We have been told by the management of the Jubilee that they are in a position to satisfy the tax requirements."

Strain said a gambling barge doesn't need a lot of time to close down operations.

"It's handled much like the procedure we use when a hurricane is threatening," he explained.

"When a barge is closing down, we are notified, and we dispatch agents from the staff to oversee the shutdown," he said.

Strain said the agents have a check list they follow.

"They secure the machines, count the tokens and chips, and lock it all down," he said. "With the recent hurricane scares, we've had a lot of practice, so it wouldn't take long to shut it down."

Once the Jubilee decides to sail, it doesn't face a lot of red tape either, according to Capt. Jack Levine with the Port of New Orleans' Association of Branch Pilots.

Levine said the Jubilee could hire "any tugboat that has a captain aboard with a federal Coast Guard license" to tow the Jubilee barge to its next port.

Lizana and District 1 Supervisor Robert Peterson said they planned to go to the District's next meeting on Nov. 8 to get an explanation on the request.

In other business, County Tax Assessor Eddie Murtagh told the Board the county has received a $60,000 check from Alpha Gulf Coast, representing the first installment of 1994 property taxes assessed against the Jubilee Casino.

He said Circuit Court Clerk Mike Necaise would deposit the money into a special escrow account "until final payment is received."

Under terms of an agreement signed by all parties, Jubilee is scheduled to pay more than $258,000 outstanding in 1994 taxes by January of 1996, and another $250,000 in 1995 taxes by next February.

The agreement requires Alpha officials to post a surety bond in an amount of $500,000 before it can move the Jubilee barge from its berth at Bayou Caddy to a new location in Greenville, Miss.

Murtagh also told supervisors the state Tax Commission has ordered a reappraisal of all properties in Hancock County to be completed within the next two years.

He said tax officials recommend reappraisal every four years, but property in the county has not been reappraised for 12 years.

Murtagh said the reappraisal might eventually lead to the lowering of property tax millage, since some property is on the books well below current market value.

He said the Tax Commission has offered to help with the survey, since he has limited personnel.

The Board-on recommendation from the County Election Commission—also voted to raise the pay of poll workers from $50 to $75 daily to comply with a newly enacted state law.

In a letter to supervisors, Commissioners said most poll workers put in at least 16-hour days during an election, and they do not receive pay for any training sessions they have to attend.

Rape suspect arrested

A 19-year-old Kiln resident is in Hancock County Jail under $100,000 bond on a capital rape charge.

Sheriff Department's investigator Glen Strong said Stacy L. Herron of 19090 Hwy. 43 was arrested at 10:35 a.m., Friday and was being held in the county jail.

Strong said the alleged rape of a young female occurred at approximately 10:30 p.m. Thursday in the Kiln area.

Strong was aided in the arrest by Asst. Deputy Kenneth Hurt.

Where you live can make a difference.

The Franchise Election scheduled for November may only be voted on by those who live within the city limits. So, if you live inside the city, this is a special election just for you. You need to learn what it's about and vote.

The current Franchise Agreement with your city will expire soon. Under the current agreement, Mississippi Power pays the city a portion of all revenue we collect inside the city limits. This money goes into the city fund and is used to help pay for the services you receive from your city. This agreement is not necessary for us to provide electricity for your area, but it is necessary for us to continue our partnership at the current level.

Since the election is only for those who live within the municipality, you may have to make a special effort to locate the appropriate voting place.

This Franchise Election is just for you ... if you live within the city. Please vote yes so that we may continue our tradition of working together to make life better for all of us. Your vote does make a difference.

For further information, contact your local Mississippi Power office.

The wedding will take place Saturday, October

28 at 7 p.m. at St. Rose de Lima Catholic Church in Bay St. Louis.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Waveland American Legion Hall.

Gipson-Ladner

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ladner of Pass Christian, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Alita Sheree Ladner, to Thomas Patrick Gipson of Columbia, Miss., son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Gipson of Columbia.

The wedding will be November 18, 1995 at 2 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Hwy. 603.

Peterson-Little

Miss Angel LaJere Little and Mr. Herbert "Chip" Joseph Peterson III were united in marriage October 7 at a garden ceremony at the home of the groom in Corinth, Miss.

The Reverend Dennis Smith officiated at the ceremony, which was followed by a reception.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Little of Corinth, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Joseph Peterson Jr. of New Orleans.

Miss Little, whose mother is the former Miss Joyce Parker, was graduated from Corinth High School and the University of Mississippi, where she received a bachelor of business administration degree. She received her master of science degree from Mississippi State University, where she was graduated magna cum laude. She is an advertising account executive with Comcast in Corinth.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Little and Mrs. James Parker of Corinth and the late Mr. Parker.

Mr. Peterson, whose mother is the former Miss Joan Biddle Murphy, was graduated from De La Salle High School and the University of Mississippi in Oxford, where he received a bachelor of business administration degree. He is a financial consultant with American General Corporation.

He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Murphy of New Orleans and Mrs. Herbert Peterson of Clermont Harbor and the later Mr. Peterson.

Following a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will reside in Corinth.

Mrs. Herbert Joseph Peterson III

CLUBS, AUXILIARIES

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139

Sept. 26, volunteers from the Clement R. Bontemps American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139 visited the Woodland Village Nursing Center in Diamondhead to entertain the residents and also to honor those who were celebrating birthdays.

Mrs. J. Jackson, director of activities, had the rec room filled with residents. Lena Mae Oustalet played the organ, and Roslyn Weathers led the singing. Elaine Roberts visited with the residents, and the staff served refreshments.

Sept. 28, Unit 139 sponsored a birthday party for the residents of Hotel Reed Nursing Center.

The residents received gifts, and Lena Mae Oustalet played the piano, and Roslyn Weathers led the singing.

Jackie Burnett and Cindy Bordes had the dining room decorated with balloons, and the room was filled with many residents. The staff served refreshments.

The monthly meeting of the auxiliary was Thursday, Oct. 12 at the Post clubhouse on Green Meadow Road.

President Janell Necaise opened the meeting; color-bearers Hazel Wohlschlegel and Charlotte Sellers advanced the colors; chaplain Carolyn Bermond read the opening prayers, and the Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

Faulette Fawcett and Anita Montgomery spoke on the Gulf Coast Women's Shelter. They thanked the unit for financial help and other donations.

Secretary Jeanette Ladner read the minutes of the previous meeting and the financial report, which was prepared by Janet Aime.

Plans were made for the annual Halloween party Tuesday, Oct. 31, 6-8 p.m., which is cosponsored by the Hancock Medical Center. Plans were also made for the Nov. 10 Veterans Day parade and the Nov. 11 Salute to Our Veterans at the Hancock Walking Track at 8 a.m.

Club members are reminded that dues should be paid as soon as possible.

WW I Veterans Auxiliary No. 2537

The World War I Auxiliary 2537 met Sept. 28 at the American Legion Club House on Green Meadow Road.

President Evelyn Perre presided according to the ritual. Opening prayer was presented by chaplain Mamie Carver. Lucille Boudreaux led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The minutes were read by Pauline Charing, secretary, who also presented the treasurer's report.

Tuleter Oliver was elected president of Region 5 of the World War I Auxiliary.

Salute to Women Veterans, who served in all wars, will be held Nov. 3 at Biloxi Medical Center.

Phyllis Moran is chairman and in charge of women veterans. A donation will be presented to Moran at this event.

Members who are ill are Ruth Milazzo, Ursula Favre, and Tuleter Oliver was recently released from Hancock Medical Center. Shirley Clemons was also hospitalized.

Installation of officers will be Thursday, Oct. 26 at noon at the American Legion 139 Club House on Green Meadow Road, followed by a luncheon. Installing officer will be Pauline Charing.

On Oct. 4 at Biloxi and Oct. 11 at the Gulfport Hospital for veterans, a carnival was held for the veterans.

Attending were Pauline Charing, Evelyn Perre, Mamie Carver, Rose Jaquillard and Tuleter Oliver. Canteen books were passed out.

Take Off Pounds Sensibly

WAVELAND

TOPS MS 233 Waveland met Tuesday, Oct. 17 at the Waveland Public Library. Bonnie was the week's best loser with 2 1/2 pounds. Paula was the week's best youth loser with 1 1/2 pounds. Ruth was the week's KOPS loser. Robin received a charm for losing 20 pounds.

TOPS MS 233 meets every Tuesday. Weigh-ins are from 5-5:45 p.m. with the meeting immediately following weigh-in.

Anyone interested in losing weight the sensible way and maintaining that weight is welcome to visit the TOPS chapter. Interested persons are invited to call Ruth at 466-9860 for information.

Diamondhead Dance Club

The Diamondhead Dance Club is announcing registration for its beginner clogging classes, which are scheduled to begin Thursday, Nov. 16.

The classes are for men as well as ladies and school children. Clogging is a form of tap dancing that has a country-western flavor. First lesson is free.

For information call 255-3477.

Hancock Women's Club

The Hancock Women's Club held its business meeting and luncheon Oct. 12 at Days Inn Diamondhead. President Marge Thomson presided with thirty-one members present.

Letters of thanks for club donations were read from the Hancock County RSVP, Library Foundation and the Humane Society. Plans were finalized for the silent auction to be held at the Nov. 9 business/luncheon meeting. Members are reminded to have their items to Jo Anne Lagasse no later than Oct. 27.

Joyce Hastling presented October birthday corsages to Shirley Jones, Rosemary Malantra, Jennie Ortis and Dot Zimmerman. Game Day will be Wednesday, Oct. 25 at the RSVP Center. Pokey-no is the game of the day, with a light lunch being served. Hostesses will be Billie Jean Niver, Margaret Thomas and Dee Wendling.

The door prize was won by Mary Gilmore.

Lois Cripple, first vice president, introduced guest speaker Felicia Palmer from Hope Haven of Hancock County. Palmer gave a presentation on the origin, concerns and needs for Hope Haven, an emergency temporary shelter for abused, abandoned or neglected children. General discussion, with questions and answers, followed the presentation.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by Dot Zimmerman.

Attention card collectors and soon to be card collectors! There is a new business in town just for you. The name of this business is Homeplate Collectables.

Homeplate Collectables is located in Water Tower Plaza, 632 Highway 90, (across from Schwegmanns) in Waveland, and caters to the card collector enthusiast. Al and Gilda Tackett, owners of Homeplate Collectables, call their store "the world's biggest little card shop", and rightfully so. Homeplate Collectables has the largest inventory on the Louisiana and Mississippi Gulf Coast. The store offers something to interest every type of card and comic collector. Over 350 different types of wax packs are available and Homeplate Collectables carries unopened boxes too. Whether your favorite sport card to collect is baseball, football, basketball, hockey or racing, Homeplate Collectables can accommodate you. Other non-sport cards offered are: movie, comic and game cards such as Magic, Rage, Illuminati, Sim City and Overpower. Homeplate Collectables has a large selection of pogs and slammers, slammer mouse pads too. A huge variety of comic books are available in the store and Homeplate Collectables allows you the opportunity to order either past or future issues of all your favorites.

Homeplate Collectables also carries supplies for the collector as well as ball and bat holders, autographed balls, photos, comics and sports figures, comic and sports figurines, toys, mugs, T-shirts and novelty items. (Any of these items would make great gifts or stocking stuffers.)

For you moms and dads, come have a seat in our comfortable "dug-out" and enjoy a complimentary soft drink while the kids browse through the store or play one of the three arcade video games.

Al and Gilda offer some of the friendliest service you will ever receive and they invite and encourage visits from their valued customers. Be sure to stop by and pick up your free Halloween trick or treat bag anytime during normal business hours which are: Monday through Thursday from 9AM to 7PM, Friday and Saturday from 9AM to 9PM or on Sundays from noon to 5PM.

Feel free to call Al or Gilda of Homeplate Collectables at 467-7525 for more information.

TRAVEL & ENTERTAINMENT

Coast Coliseum's schedule includes musicals, Big Bird

The Isle of Capri Casino presents, for the first time at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum, an exciting season of Broadway Musicals and the opportunity to purchase season tickets for the series at a savings of up to 25 percent over individual ticket prices.

Nov. 16: Cinderella
This beloved story of romance and dreams-come-true is brought to life onstage with all the beauty and pageantry that Cinderella inspires.

The Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II musical is part of a 15-week tour of approximately 50 cities across the U.S.

The musical is adapted from the original fairy tale entitled Cendrillon ou La Petite Pantoufle de Vair (translated as Cinderella or the Tiny Fur Slipper) written by Charles Perrault.

Dec. 6: Beauty and the Beast
The wizardry of high-tech special effects, glittering costumes and sets, dazzling choreography, a soaring pop-rock score, a live orchestra and a brilliant cast create a magic kingdom; gargoyles and griffins come to life, Beauty is guided through the Beast's castle by invisible "whispers," and a vain king is transformed on state into a ten-foot beast.

Feb. 12: Crazy for You
The all-singing, all-dancing, all-Gershwin musical comedy would be "crazy" to miss. This 1992 Toni Award winner for best musical, best choreography and best costumes is a brand-new old-fashioned musical that continues to thrill Broadway audiences with its classic boy-meets-girl plot.

It is a hilarious combination of fast-breaking plot twists, mistaken identities and, of course, the triumph of true love.

Season tickets for the series:

* Premium seating (center floor, telescope and terrace), adults and youths, $65

* Side seating (floor, telescope and terrace to the left and right of center state), adults $50, youths (12 and under) $26

* Balcony seating (upper level), adults $41, youths (12 and under) $22

* Tickets go on sale next week at the Coliseum Box Office.

Antique Lovers Dream Event
Oct. 27, 28 and 29: Antiques and Small Collectibles Show

The first annual Autumn Antiques and Small Collectibles Show features over 50 vendors from six states, antique furniture, Victorian linens, clothes, dolls, Depression glass, estate and vintage jewelry, silver, etc. Show opens at 2 p.m. Friday, Oct. 27, until 7 p.m.; Saturday, Oct. 28, 9 a.m.-7 p.m.; Sunday, Oct. 29, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Admission is $4, and there is no parking fee.

Rascher Quartet to appear at Saenger

The world renowned Rascher Saxophone Quartet will perform at the Biloxi Saenger Theatre Tuesday, Oct. 24 at 7:30 p.m. It is a first-time benefit concert and a first-time community presentation by the newly established children's museum, The Lynn Meadows Discovery Center.

The Rascher Quartet was founded 26 years ago by Sigurd Rascher and has become a major "voice" in classical music circles the world over. The Rascher Quartet success has

Reba in Concert
Oct. 27: The undisputed Queen of Country Music, Reba McEntyre performs in concert with hot country artist Tracy Byrd and special guest, newcomer Rhett Atkins.

A limited number of tickets are still available. Giant video screens provide "up-close to the action" viewing from any seat in the house.

Tickets are $27.70 plus Ticketmaster fee.

Buckin' Broncos and Cowboys are back

Nov. 2-5, the rodeo is coming back into town with the Professional Cowboy Finals. Top cowboys and cowgirls compete for over $100,000 in cash and prizes. Rodeo starts at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday and 2 p.m. on Sunday. Tickets are $10 and $8 plus Ticketmaster fee.

Big Bird, Elmo and the rest of the Sesame gang are back

Nov. 7 and 8, Sesame Street Live's all new show comes to the Mississippi Coast Coliseum for three fun-filled performances of "Let's Be Friends."

It's the happiest of stories as Elmo and Zoe start an exclusive friendship club only to find that everyone on Sesame Street wants to join.

Join the Muppets as they discover friends come in all different colors, shapes and sizes.

Tickets are available at the Coliseum Box Office and at all usual Ticketmaster locations or call 800-488-5252.

Tickets are $12 and $9 plus Ticketmaster fee; limited premium seating $15. Children 1-10 receive $1.50 discount.

Opening night is Tuesday, Nov. 7, 7 p.m.; all seats $9; Daycare/School Show, Wednesday, Nov. 8, 10:30 a.m. Special group discount $7.

Wednesday, Nov. 8, 7 p.m. everyone's a kid. Adults receive $1.50 kids' discount with coupon from Winn-Dixie supermarkets.

resulted in a re-introduction of classical saxophone possibilities for ensemble groups and entire symphonies.

The Rascher Quartet's Oct. 24 concert is an amazing opportunity for South Mississippi, and it is not a randomly selected concert site. One Rascher member, alto saxophonist Harry Kinross White, a product of the University of Southern Mississippi's music department, is a Gulfportian.

For information call the Lynn Meadows Discovery Center at 601-897-6039 or the Greater Gulf Coast Arts Council, 601-864-4000.

Village

Dunbar Village is an environment planned to respond to people who no longer feel comfortable living in their homes. It is not a nursing home. It provides assistance with daily living, as well as health supervision while encouraging each resident to maintain his or her independence.

The facility is like home. It is nestled in a quiet neighborhood, yet is only blocks away from medical offices, Hancock Medical Center and shopping centers. The entry, living room and dining room are decorated for everyone to enjoy. Each resident may decorate his or her room with familiar and comfortable furnishings. All meals are prepared on the premises and served in a family setting.

Dunbar Village offers a secure place to live. All rooms open out on a single hall from a centrally located assistance station which is staffed 24 hours a day to meet all of our residents' needs. Assistance with dressing, bathing, walking and any other daily activities is also provided. Additionally, the staff monitors and dispenses medications. A consulting registered nurse and dietitian are available to take care of all health care needs.

A full schedule is developed to encourage residents to maintain their level of activity. Scheduled transportation is available to take residents to shopping centers, banks, churches and planned special events.

Ten Commandments Of Retirement Living

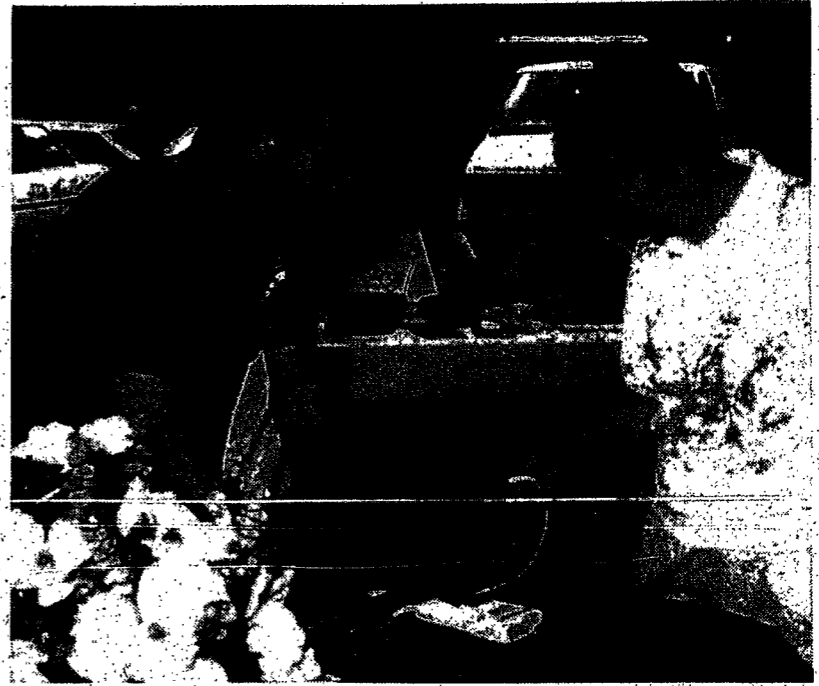

(NAPS)—As a correspondent and expert on aging, people always ask me how they should approach their retirement. After all, most of us spend virtually our entire adult lives working, and the thought of all this spare time can be a bit daunting. Personally, I like to think of retirement as a beginning rather than an ending—a time to explore everything the world has to offer. The right attitude is really the key to enjoying your retirement years. Following are my own "Ten Commandments" for mature living.

- Thou shalt make plans. Be bold, be daring. Take up a new hobby; try an evening course at a local community college. Get active in your neighborhood... anything that keeps your body and mind active.
- Thou shalt look at the brighter side. Be optimistic. Remember, aging is a positive life experience.
- Thou shalt travel. There is no time like the present to see new sites or visit family and friends. Many travel companies even offer special programs for mature travelers, like Hilton Senior HHonors®. Call 1-800-432-3600, ext. 902, for more details.
- Thou shalt not whine. It's a time-waster and won't win you any friends. Better to devote your energies to solving problems or scaling new heights.
- Thou shalt write at least one cheerful letter to someone every week. Remember, it takes two minutes out of your day to become a highlight of someone else's day, and sharing your thoughts also makes you feel great.
- Thou shalt laugh often, deeply and loudly. Laughing is not only good for the heart, but it also reminds others that you still have a sense of humor. And if you can't laugh at life, what can you laugh at?
- Thou shalt make a list of 20 things you've always wanted to do and do them one at a time. Too often we put things off due to a lack of time. Consider retirement an invitation to finally make your dreams a reality.

- Thou shalt wear out rather than rust out. Spend your time creating new memories rather than dwelling on the past. Stay active.
- Thou shalt think big thoughts and enjoy small pleasures. Don't restrict yourself. Who says you can't write the "great American novel" if that's what you want to do? And don't forget that you really have time to treat yourself in small ways—take time to smell the roses.
- Thou shalt sign your living will. Don't think of this as a negative. It's the smart thing to do... for any adult.

Remember, aging is as much a state of mind as a physical process. By keeping these commandments in mind, you can be sure to make the most of your retirement days.

Guidelines For Arthritis Patients Spell "Empower"

(NAPS)—More than 37 million Americans suffer from arthritis—the nation's number-one crippling disease. For many, the diagnosis is both physically and emotionally disabling. But now, a cadre of 500 of these individuals have joined together to show both physicians and fellow patients that with a little teamwork, it doesn't have to be that way. They have been "empowered" through a unique program called Searle Patient Partners in Arthritis.

Trained to serve as educators, Patient Partners teach medical students how to perform a joint exam, speak to practicing physicians about effective doctor-patient communication, and reach out to others with arthritis through community forums and educational materials. And now, consumers across the country can learn more about how to become partners with their own physician by calling a toll-free hotline, 1-800-ARTH-INFO (1-800-278-4463), funded by the program's sponsor, Searle Pharmaceuticals.

Here are a few tips offered by Searle Patient Partners:

Education: Teach yourself about your disease by reading, attending seminars, asking your doctor questions and talking to others who also have your illness. Learning the basic medical terminology helps you communicate more effectively with your physician, enabling you to get the most out of visits to your doctor. Also, you'll learn about the pros and cons of the different treatments available.

Medication: Taking medication, as prescribed by your physician, is a vital part of your overall health care. Non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs, or NSAIDs, are the most common medications prescribed to treat arthritis symptoms such as pain and inflammation. It's important to be involved in decisions about your medications; ask your doctor and pharmacist about possible side effects and potential interactions with other medications you may be taking. Many patients, including eight out of ten respondents in a recent Gallup survey, find that it's easier to follow their doctor's instructions if they can take their medicine just once a day. Ask your doctor about once-a-day medications such as Daypro (oxaprozin).

Keep a log to record when you take your medication, note any unusual symptoms and monitor improvement.

Physician/Patient Communication: Be assertive. Open communication between patient and physician is critical. Lee S. Simon, M.D., assistant professor of medicine at Harvard Medical School and rheumatologist at Deaconess Hospital, Boston, says, "Two-way communication between doctor and patient is imperative. Doctors can prescribe specific medical treatments and can recommend exercise regimens, but our success will be limited if patients aren't equipped to build on these treatments by taking other steps to improve their health. You should be honest with your physician at all times about your pain, concerns and opinions on treatment—and persist in asking any questions you may have until you feel well-informed."

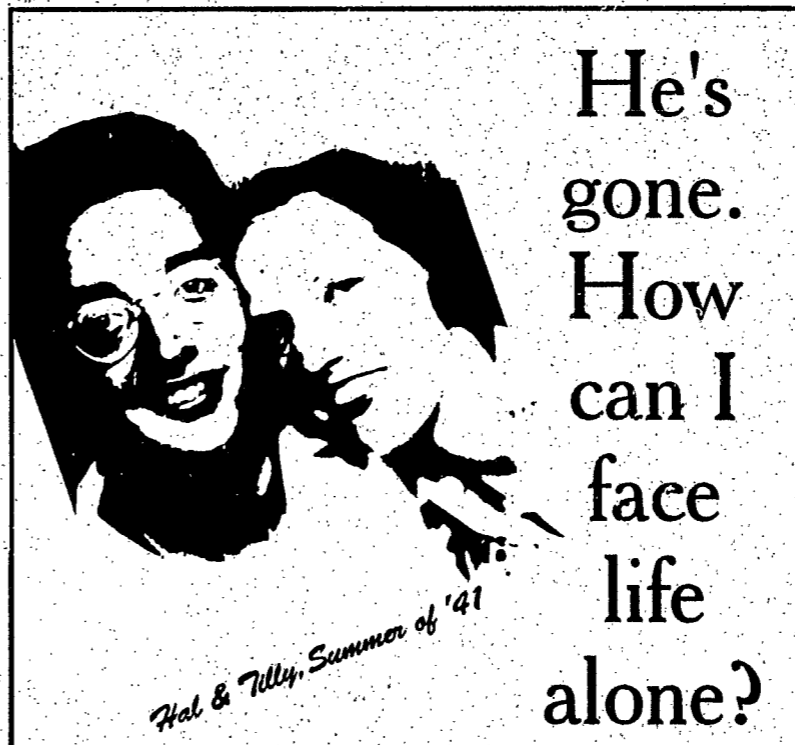

Outlook: A positive attitude has a powerful effect and is essential to your overall well-being. Reach out to others who have your disease by joining local support groups. Reward yourself for the day's small successes rather than focusing on what you couldn't accomplish.

Willingness: Acceptance of the disease is one of the most difficult obstacles for newly diagnosed arthritis patients to accept. One of the keys to acceptance is recognizing that your lifestyle must be altered. Patient Partner Sharon Dickson explains, "Once I was willing to accept my condition, I started using devices designed specifically for people with arthritis, began to delegate house chores to members of the family and sought out a rheumatologist. These things helped me take control of my disease and my life."

Exercise: Exercise is an excellent way to alleviate stress, improve your attitude and maintain your physical well-being. Exercise that doesn't place direct stress on joints, such as swimming, bicycling and walking, should be part of a complete, physician-coordinated treatment plan. A physical therapist can offer specifics if you need one-on-one instruction; ask your doctor for a referral. In addition, many hospitals offer special exercise programs for persons with arthritis.

Relaxation: Take time out for yourself. Find ways to conserve energy. Patient Partner Jennifer Finch offers a suggestion for saving time and energy: "I keep a wicker basket at the foot of the stairs. Throughout the day, I toss items in it that need to go upstairs so at the end of the day, I make only one trip."

By taking these steps—as well as others available in the brochure Talking to Your Doctor About Arthritis—you can begin to take an active role in managing your disease and ensuring that you receive optimal care. To receive the brochure, call 1-800-ARTH-INFO (1-800-278-4463).

Prevent High Blood Pressure In Four Easy Steps

(NU)—Just about everyone is familiar with high blood pressure, or hypertension, but few understand it. Try this true or false quiz:

1. Stress causes high blood pressure.
2. High blood pressure has no symptoms.
3. People whose parents had high blood pressure will also have it.
4. Nothing can be done to prevent high blood pressure.

The answers to these questions, from the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute (NHLBI)—one of the National Institutes of Health—can be surprising.

The first statement is false. Stress does make blood pressure rise, but not permanently. Rising and falling blood pressure is normal, but it becomes dangerous when it is always high.

The second statement is true—usually. High blood pressure is called "the silent killer," making regular blood pressure checks vital.

The third statement is false. Family history makes high blood pressure more likely, but not a certainty.

The encouraging news is that the fourth statement is false. High blood pressure can be prevented through four simple steps:

- Control weight. Being overweight means a two- to six-fold higher risk of developing high blood pressure. About 20 to 30 percent of hypertension in the United States is related to excess weight. If you need to reduce, try to lose one-half to one pound per week.
- Increase physical activity. Many studies show that active men and women of all ages have less hypertension than their inactive counterparts.
- Avoid excess salt and sodium. Consume no more than 2,400 milligrams of sodium a day. This includes what's in processed foods and added during cooking and at the table. Salt is only one form of sodium—there are others; so watch your use of all forms.

• Avoid excess alcohol. If you drink, do so in moderation—no more than two drinks daily. About five to seven percent of hypertension in the United States can be attributed to the consumption of three or more alcoholic drinks a day. "By preventing high blood pressure, people may also sidestep its serious health complications—stroke, heart disease and kidney failure," says Dr. Claude Lenfant, director of the NHLBI. For more on high blood pressure, call the NHLBI Information Line at 1-800-575-WELL.

Retirement Facts And Figures

(NAPS)—T. Rowe Price, which manages more than $54 billion for more than three million investor accounts, has received more than one million requests from investors for its acclaimed retirement planning kits. This includes 590,000 requests for its Retirement Planning Kit since it was introduced in 1989, and over 420,000 requests for the Retirees Financial Guide, which became available two years later. In addition, more than 85,000 orders have been received for the software version of the Retirement Planning Kit.

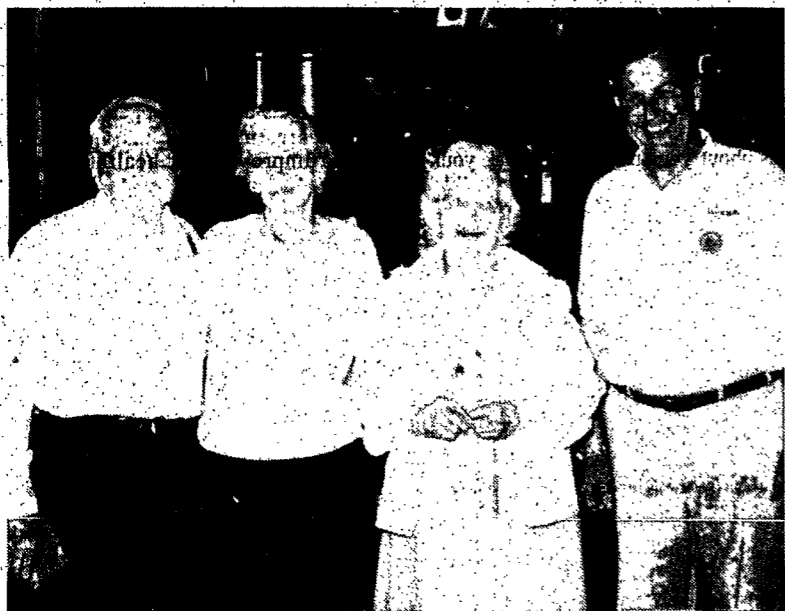

Both kits were improved and updated for 1994 to reflect changes resulting from the 1993 Tax Act, including potentially higher tax rates on Social Security benefits, changes in health insurance programs, updated Social Security and Medicare benefits and more current and expanded investment information.

The T. Rowe Price Retirement Planning Kit, designed for those more than five years from retirement, consists of three parts: a workbook to determine what you need for retirement; facts that should be considered in developing a retirement investment strategy and model portfolios; and general guidance on using mutual funds to implement a retirement strategy. The PC version, which is designed for any IBM or IBM-compatible PC, does all financial calculations automatically.

The Retirees Financial Guide is also a three-part kit, specifically designed for those who are retired or nearing retirement. Part One reviews financial concerns such as Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security and working after retirement. Part Two is a detailed workbook to help retirees estimate what they can afford to spend in retirement. Part Three provides a detailed discussion of investing in retirement.

For your free Retirement Planning Kit and Retirees Financial Guide, call 1-800-541-8466. The software version of the Retirement Planning Kit costs $15 and can be ordered with a credit card by calling 1-800-541-4041.

From the beginning

The 22nd Annual Recognition Luncheon was recently held for the Hancock County Retired Senior Program at Bayou Caddy's Jubilee Casino. Among the original Hancock County RSVP members in attendance were, from left, Carl Baldenhofer, Mrs. Terry Newkirk and Mrs. John (Maggie) Dambrino with Waveland Mayor John Mason. The RSVP program is sponsored by the city of Waveland and receives support from Hancock County and the city of Bay St. Louis and is also an agency of the United Way of South Mississippi. The Sea Coast Echo

N.I.E. and YOU ...

*Providing Local Classrooms
With The Local Newspaper ...*

The Most Up-To-Date Textbook There Is!

The newspaper is an excellent learning tool and a perfect resource for the classroom. The Sea Coast Echo is proud to offer Newspapers In Education (N.I.E.), a program sponsored by local businesses that provides local schools with The Sea Coast Echo and other N.I.E. materials.

When newspapers are used in the classroom, students learn about government, current events, local business, personal budgeting and much more!

As a partner in the N.I.E. program, you will also benefit. Your donation is tax-deductible and your support will make a difference in the quality of education that is available to students in our community.

So, join our sponsors in making an investment in Hancock County's future, our children, by becoming an N.I.E. partner. Just complete the coupon below and mail it, along with your check, payable to: The Sea Coast Echo, c/o Jim Brewer, N.I.E. Coordinator, P.O. Box 2009, Bay Saint Louis, MS 39521-2009.
